MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE
STAUNTON, VIRGINIA
VOLUME 81

MARTHA S. GRAFTON LIBRARY
MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE

This is our place. It is a special place that is called home for nine out of twelve months. These months filled with memory-making moments and meaning live on at Mary Baldwin College.

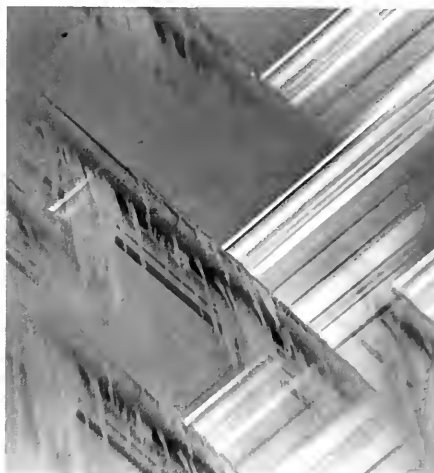

DEDICATION

In these times of transition and upheaval we should take time to reflect on the past and what it has meant to us. An important part of that past is an individual who will leave Mary Baldwin College this year to continue her growth through education. Dean Mona Olds has been an inspiration to us all through many ups and downs. She has shown patience, guidance, restraint when necessary, dedication, and above all, love for MBC and the students here.

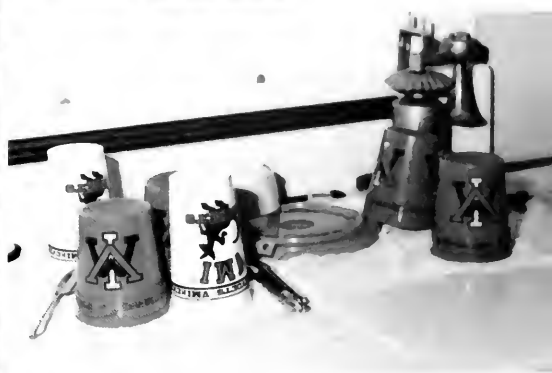

Dean Olds is quiet by nature, but beneath the quiet exterior is strength, compassion, humor and wisdom that will be sadly missed. Her loyalty and commitment have carried her through five years at MBC during which time she developed the Dean of Students Office into a supportive and inviting source of help for the student body.

Thank you Dean Olds, for all you have given us. Our only hope of repaying you for your efforts will be for us to reflect those good qualities which you have always demonstrated. — leadership, concern for others, dedication and hard work.

We wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. We hope that part of MBC will always stay with you, for your influence will most surely stay with us.

EVENTS

Congratulations are in order. Who said Simon Sez was an easy game. Checking into her dorm, Ann Renee Garrett begins a hectic, but enjoyable, orientation. A cheerful floorboard is a welcomed sight for the terrified freshman. Memorial's floorboard was no exception. One of a house president's duties is to greet incoming freshmen. Here Lil McClung discusses orientation with Rosemary Booth and her mother.

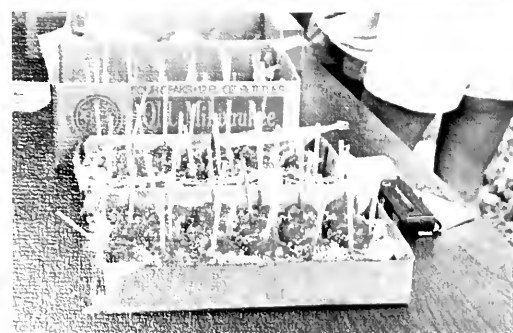

While you're off meeting your roommate, Daddy and little brother usually get stuck with the unpacking. "Come on Ken, you can do it!"

ORIENTATION

Upperclassmen present their own version of a chorus line.
It's okay to park in the fire lane when you're moving in.
"Don't tell her that — It's not THAT bad."

Courageous sophomores were not afraid to take the plunge for Apple Day. "Keep your eyes on the eggs!" was the motto for anxious egg toss participants. The humorous Apple Day skits drew a round of applause from the audience. Aster Dawit enjoys the bounty of Apple Day: a candied red apple sprinkled with nuts. Ken Armstrong won the award for Apple Day house in vogue. Face first, Lou Pierce gave it her all. Apple Day was a red and green heaven for candied apple lovers.

The apple bobbing contest was a cooling crowd pleaser. Apple Day offered sweet revenge on table manners and dainty etiquette. Susan Greshaw, sophomore class president, lead the delicious rebellion. Three apple actresses, Carlyle Smith, LeAnne Williamson and Sharon Hanger, learn about their parts in the sophomore skits. Katie McDonald, Jana Greenwood and Leslie Lewis celebrate the true meaning of Apple Day.

Everybody loves the photographer.

MUSIC

MAN!

Every year the sophomore class pulls together one last time to show their spirit. This year's class was no exception. For three months, the class of '85 worked together, laughed together and sang together — but mostly they pulled together — to produce a smashing show: The Music Man.

The Music Man, Margaret Hardesty, embraces a townswoman, Sandy Harrison. Lynn Talbott, Dawn McKenney, Susan Christie and Anne Brown form the harmonious barber shop quartet. Suzanne Woodfin knows how to steal the spotlight with her brilliant bugle performance. Millie Welch and Pattie Norton listen attentively whenever Tami Hatch speaks. Elizabeth Morgan sings a song while being escorted along in her best country dress. Jessica Susnar, Caroline Craig and Margaret Hardesty enjoy an animated moment on stage.

BEER, BOYS AND BANDS

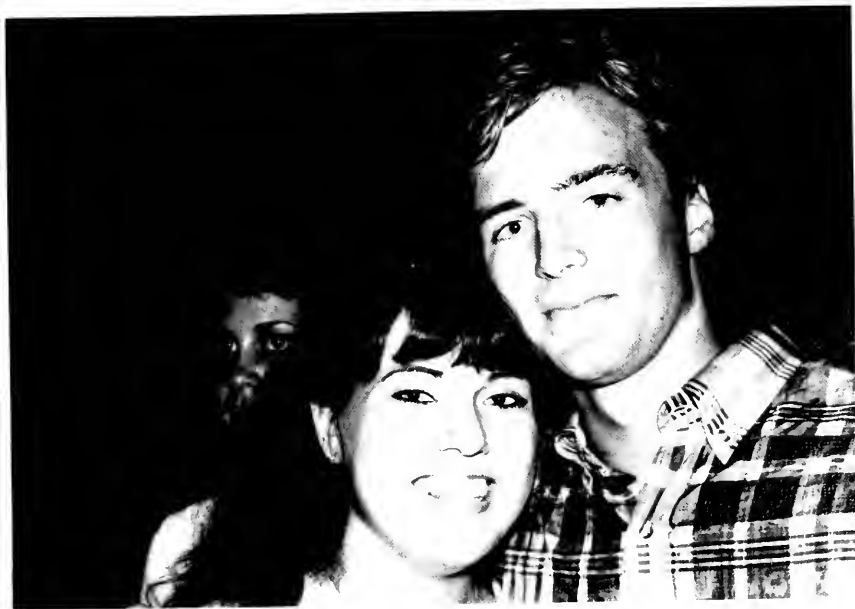

Kelly Gulliland Inadvertently is the center of attention. Mary O. Pollard, Kathy Fauster and Sissy Grantham don their special smiles.

Freshmen mingle.

Events are made more special when the guest is an out-of-town favorite.

Staci Weinstein and Jeff Lodenk enjoy a moment.

Special friends, Anne Mackey and Alice Ingram, enjoy each other's company.

"He might be camera-shy," says Robin Rexinger, "but we still know who he is. "We'd like another beer, please."

Against a background of commotion, Amy Sheehan and friend are caught in a gleeful moment.

Anne Broyles and a friend take time out to chat while enjoying a Sunday party.

Co-ed company is always a welcomed surprise!

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Sharing yule-tide cheer produced smiles in Amy Buhrman and Maureen Prendergast

Kathy Smith and Frost Burnett enjoy the gaily decorated Christmas dance

Allison Van Eman and Donna Carson sparkle in front of the bow-tied boughs of the Christmas tree

Friends added the extra spice to Tiffany Smith's Christmas celebration.

Peaches Bush and Susan Anderson highlight the Christmas spirit with a festive moment

The two Santa's, Courtney Dewey and Jackie Skinner, share a smile that only true Santas can understand

A special night with special friends was enjoyed by Indah Panupong, Aster Dawit and Nok Onruang

I haven't seen you in a while yet I often imagine
all your expressions.
I haven't spoken to you recently

I hear your thoughts.
Good friends must not always be together.
It is a feeling of oneness
when distant
that proves a lasting friendship.

Some days are made for recollection,
days which, on the surface,
are not very different from all the other thousands in the chain of years.
But seeds have been sown
which will lie hidden quietly until their time,
when a commanding shaft of light breaks through;
then all the concentrated life in the seeds
will stir and rise.

Looks better 'cross the way
Though fortune may surround you here
There's still a price to pay

You're headed in the right direction
And long overdue.

With the '82-'83 Bluestocking finally finished, there are three things that come to mind . . .

1. my aversion to M&M's —
2. the words of Mark Twain . . . "If'n Ida known how much trouble it wuz to write a book, I never woulda started it, and I ain't agonna try it agin."
3. . . . and I lived happily ever after.
